Breakfast in the hotel. Free time.

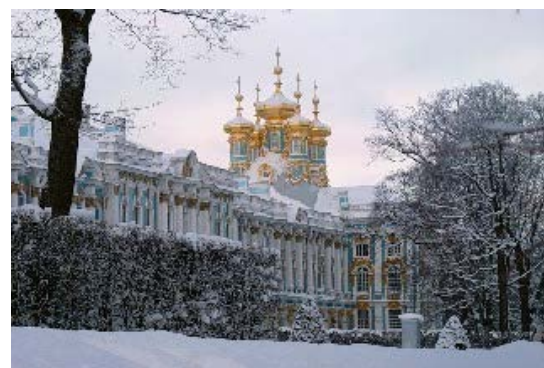

Excursion to Empire suburbs (Pushkin or Peterhof optional)

Pushkin (low, shoulder seasons)

In former times, Pushkin (Tsarskoye Selo) was a favorite country residence of the Imperial family, where high-ranking officials rested and entertained. Now it is one of the most famous and visited suburbs of St. Petersburg. The suburb consists of the Catherine's Palace and several parks. Here you may feel the atmosphere of the Royal way of life in its entire magnificence. It is hard to believe that almost everything inside the palace is a result of a careful restoration, which has been finished with its legendary Amber Room just several years ago, after severe damages during World War II. Today tourists from all over the world come to Pushkin to see its marvelous parks and the Catherine's Palace, definitely one of the most impressive highlights of every visit to Saint Petersburg.

Peterhof (high season)

Located just 34 kilometers from St.-Petersburg, spectacular Peterhof attracts thousands of tourists with its parks, palaces and, mainly, fountains. That's why the town is frequently compared to Versailles. As a former residence of the Emperors, Peterhof is also the home of several palaces with the Grand Palace as its main landmark. It had been destroyed by the Nazis and then carefully restored as to exhibit the splendor of the Royal way of life. You will see the halls, brightly decorated with gold, marble and numerous of the most impressive highlights of every mirrors. The beauty of Peterhof, its marvelous fountains and palaces has left nobody indifferent.

Overnight in the hotel.
